Peter Braun

Minutes of the April 5, 2012 meeting were approved by Candace, 2nd by Tony

NEW BUSINESS:

- ◆ Karen interviewed applicants for the Library 1 position. She was looking for someone to work with the youth and story telling program. She filled the position with someone that has experience with kids and will start mid June.
- ◆ Art Exhibit for June: Works of the late Mayor Desca Dubois

OLD BUSINESS:

- ▶ Teen Room: Public Works will be building a shelf for the TV. The Friends want to buy Wii for the gaming room. Grand opening scheduled for mid June.
- ▶ An anti-tobacco program is scheduled for the teen room. There will also be a teen empowerment program to teach teens responsibilities about being young adults and making good choices and getting involved in the community.
- ▶ The new banners have been made for the Library and The Friends at a cost of $78 for both banners.

DIRECTORS REPORT:

- > E-books have been started, Karen will order audio books. There is a list of book available on the web site.
- > Karen wants to create a policy about viewing a video of the Library. She wants to challenge the law about who can view the video since it is being viewed by law enforcement. The policy needs to be in compliance with the American Library Association. Candace will look at the federal statute to see what is the Florida law.

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES:

- Movie nights
- Advanced & basic computer classes
- Purple Sage book club
- Blues music event to be held at Mos'Art Theater to benefit The Friends & Cancer Alliance of Help & Hope

Meeting was adjourned at 7:00pm
