NEW BUSINESS:

- ◆ Book sale to be held in January, date to be announced. The Friends will sponsor.
- ◆ The Library will partner with the Lake Worth Theater and Bridges of Lake Park to start an Anti-Bully campaign program. Katrina Busch a local mother has created a program with stage performance. She is setting up auditions of kids and adults for the play. She is trying to get grants for this production. The Mosart theater is helping also. Literacy coalition has offered advice and the sheriff department will be on hand after the performances so people can ask questions. The campaign is intending to continue after the performance.
Ms. Busch wants to involve the community and needs to find ways to fund the program. She thinks they need about $300 for advertisements. The Library can sponsor as a community program.
- ◆ Author Harriet Ruderman is a publicist from NY. She wrote a book "Freezy Fun Friday" Karen is looking for a way to help the author to promote her new book.

OLD BUSINESS:

- ▶ Teen Room update: Friends will buy 5 tables at @$20 a piece for the computers.
Volunteer teens will paint the room. Grand opening expected end of October.
There will be 5 keyboards, 5 monitors, 1 computer. Candace and Lisa donated a privacy screen.
- ▶ Lisa sent a get well card to Barbara from the Library Board.
